Passion stood beside one of the tall pairs of glass doors and welcomed the breath of cool air that wafted over her. She had told Charlotte that one of the members of her father ' s parish was ill and asking for her. She was not a good liar and hated having to voice the false excuse. But it would be far worse to remain.

Revenge against the countess, who snubbed you from her society and, therefore, from all noble society. And it was all for naught. Now that your evil machinations have been exposed, we are all ruined. So don ' t try to play this off as if you ' re some great martyr to my elevation! ". She shook her head.

Passion shivered as she felt a hand slide around her waist. A hint of lemon verbena flirted with her senses. She looked up. Excitement sparked through her. Mark! He was frowning hard at the gentleman. " Is this man bothering you, darling?" Passion blanched. They were supposed to be strangers. No one should know they knew each other.

Passion by Lisa Valdez Download PDF EPUB FB2 Okay, so I found Passion, the book 3 of the Fallen series in library and decided to give this series another try. The first two books had given me little satisfaction, with the romance between the two main characters so paper-thin, the pace of the story so off-beat, /5(K).

Like all the commentors here, I loved Passion. It was sexy, fiesty, and romantic at the same time, and Lisa Valdez did not shy away or hide away from the raunchier scenes. This is unusual for a romance read, as it tends to skim over or dilutes them. Since reading the preview chapters on her website, and at the end of Passion.
